

CITY OF ORLANDO

Proclamation

WHEREAS, the City of Orlando recognizes that a healthy family is key to strengthening Orlando and as a source of hope, guidance, stability, and love for every generation, families teach and exemplify the values and virtues needed in today's changing world; and

WHEREAS, the City of Orlando recognizes that strong families are at the core of strong neighborhoods and an essential part of the cultural, social and spiritual fabric of Orlando communities; and

WHEREAS, everyone has a role to play in making families successful, including neighborhood organizations, businesses, nonprofit agencies, faith institutions, policymakers and, of course, families themselves; and

WHEREAS, during the week of October 30 – November 6, 2010, Orlando families should take the opportunity to recognize the importance of loving one another, the value of families and the special connections that support and strengthen families year-round; and

WHEREAS, during this week many organizations throughout the county are working to help families of all type create a positive environment in which they can become successful members of society;

NOW, THEREFORE, I, BUDDY DYER, Mayor of the City of Orlando, hereby do proclaim the week of October 30 – November 6, 2010 as in the City of Orlando.

“WEEK OF THE FAMILY”

IN WITNESS WHEREOF, I herunto have set my hand and caused the Seal of the City of Orlando to be affixed this 18th day of October 2010.
